

Project proposal for a Mighty Pero'Nair Statye in Fayrhavenyr, Trykerlands

Tis our humble contrybution to the fosterance of good and community to plan, fund and rayse a statye and otherwyse improve quality of lyfe in lochilands, in honor of the undispyted benefactyr of all Homyn in general, and of the Trykerfolkse in particylar, namely Mayster Pero'Nair the Elegant, whose Relentless and Erratyc Lydership over tyme in the Waterly Parts has fastened and guarunteed Frydom to those once enslaved.

Yrection of the Immanent Gold pero'Nair Statye of Worshyp and Grace by the Will of Jena Almost Herself

The Immanent Gold Pero'Nair Statye of Worshyp and Grace by the Will of Jena Almost Herself has been in planning fyr a long tyme, as Our Myst Respycted Lyder simply desyrves it. He Hymself has been awaiting its constryction fyr many a Jena yeer, for He Hymself inspyred the concypt.

The Immanent Gold pero'Nair Statye of Worshyp and Grace by the Will of Jena Almost Herself (IGPNW/GWJAH) is to be the major achievemynt of Aeden Artisains, and a landmyrk not only fyr lochilands, but fyr all of Atys and Hominyty as a whole.

The Immanent Gold pero'Nair Statye of Worshyp and Grace by the Will of Jena Almost Herself shall be buylded either by the Stables in Fairhaven itself, or in the myddle of Liberty Lochi themselves, at a locatyon to be determyned by a majority vote of 20 percynt (Mayster Pero's ballot counts for two-hundryd and fyfty votes). It shall bear tystymony to the Intrynsic and Phantasmagryic nature of Pero'Nair, whose dyscovery of the Lost Amberi Cubes regardyng our most precyous Lore, whose oozing testosterone levels, Maystery of All Artsys and Craftyees of Atys, and phenomynal abilyty as a Wayfyrer and Autolaynchermin are the subyct of much intent marvelllyng and awe. We are indeed blessyd.

On the pedystal of the Immanent Gold pero'Nair Statye of Worshyp and Grace by the Will of Jena Almost Herself, opposite the Yubo peeing area, shall be engraved in Zun Amberi the official poem of pero'Nairdom:

Your beauty is fulfillment
Your Glory is so secure
You are the flames of fashion fire impossible to not admire.
A symmetry of perofection
A hymn to space and time
Your visage is so imperofate
It can only be divine.
My love for you is so complete
A willing slave am I
To the master of the Lakelands
Legend, Luminary, Hero.
PERO! PERO! PERO!

After much braynstorming and thought-provoking confrontytions wyth the Homynettes in Aeden Artisains, it has been arrived to the decysion that the Immanent Gold pero'Nair Statye of Worshyp and Grace by the Will of Jena Almost Herself shall depyct Our Most Exalted and perofectly Short-Syghted Champyon in Hys favoryte attytude, that of the Meditative Yet Standing Homin. How the decysion was reached is and shall remayn a secret well-kypt, but suffices to say that it seemed the ideal position to hyghlight Hys Chaps of Doomity, and that the syght of Hys Glazed Eyes looking down on all Homyns would provyde a most spooky syght, with such protyctive powers as that of an intensely kipuckous gargoye. It is expycted to scare even the kitin. It wyl be buylt at the standard scale of One Hundryd Peroheght™.

Estymated cost for gatheryng of the Materyals: 50 byllion dapperi (50 Mayster Prymery Rooti dyggeri hyred fyr 20 Jena yeers).

Estymated cost for transportytion: 117,990,000 dapperi (1,000 Lochi packeri).

Estymated cost for the blueprint: 0 dapper (Mayster Pero'Nair medytates oftyen enough to provyde the lyve model).

Estymated cost for buylding: 3 byllion dapperi (including 400 myllion dapperi ynsurance and 2.6 byllion in salaryes for 750 craftymin for 8 Jena yeers).

Estymated prospectyve cost for polishing: 100 myllion dapperi per Jena year (might want to budget for devices to keep Yberi off).

Aeden Artisains Project proposal fyr a Mighty Pero'Nair Statye in Fayrhavenyn Trykerlands (2/4)

Renaming of the Lochlands

Central area of Lochi has been called Liberty Loch, a reference to a dark and shameful era. What better way of honoring the fights of the past than making a direct reference to those who made freedom a reality, and namely the first of them all, Pero'Nair, the Kind, Unfathomable and Glorious Hero? It would also serve to constantly remind all residents and visitors of Pero'Nair's immense and unrepayable tasks, that have been described and sung in our legends.

For simplicity, we initially thought of Pero Loch. But Our Most Fearless Lyder hath suggested Bayoo Loch in stead, for He deemeth the term appropriate since we have marshes and meadows, and He just liketh the sound of it.

It may take a bit of convincing, but our efforts in the past have made it possible to properly inaugurate Windy Head as a homage to Our Dear Leader Most Whimsical Mind, so we will just have to take courage and face the bureaucrats to make Bayoo Loch a reality.

Estimated cost for stamping to the Lochi Governyr and administrators: 50 million dapperi.

Construction of a mirror factory

Pero'Nair has been having secret top-level talks with the Loria Cute Tribe, that produces and provides Him with shiny reflective things He calleth mirrors. An insider was able to tell us that these talks have resulted in an agreement to build a hidden mirror factory in Bounty Beachies.

Since Atys in general, and the Lochlands in particular, do need a Level-Headed and Fully Wyse Leader with Working Grey Cells Who's able to do something else than stare at His Face and Chaps of Doom all Jena-year long, covert operations to sabotage the building are mandatory.

Be discreet. Bring autolynchors.

Introducing alligatyr

There have been rumors of passingby starishyys carrying live alligatyr cargo. Pero'Nair was very excyted at the news, and He Hymself attympteth to contact the passyng shyps by way of the olde mygratorial gates. However, in a momynt of Absynt-Myndedness, He forgotteth the operantyng passyword and wasn't able to brybe the pilot.

Pero'Nair's enthysiasm (an odd dance punctyated with erratyc "Poboy! Poboy!" screams) should be interpretyd as a sygn that this event has hysterical significance. It should be our task to prypare our boardyng assault appropryatedly, and to scrytinize the skyes to make syre we wynt myss the next cargo.

It goes wythout sayyng that alligatyr would be renamed perogators upon the inaugratory release into lochi. No ynvironmental consyquences are to be feared. Our Vastly Knowlydgeable King saideth gators are lyke harmless green fysh and taste yummy.

Provyded Pero'Nair can remyber the passyword and that the mygratorial gates are styll operantional, three full teams in heavy gyrr myght be suffycient to storm the navygatory hull and crash a shyp in Dew Dropsi, and release three of fyr scores of gatyr to keep Clopyrs company. Recruityng efforts are underway. See post in Guildy Hall for detayls, next to the fysh.

Cost estymate: E'Thievyr Crookie gyves a rough estymate of 700 myllion dapperi per head for ynsurance.

Translatyd from Tryker to Commyn language by E'Allanie poey, for 37,042 dapperi ( $3 \times 110,000$  per season = 330,000), 41,000 shyyts of whyte slavyri parchment grade B, 420 ragusi felt pens).

The prysent proposyl was completyd on the Most phenomynally Auspicyous Occasyon of Master Pero'Nair's Most Unexpectyd Yet Mosty perofectly Recurrynt Birthday.
